Staff from Oakland's Planning and Building Department (generalplan@oaklandca.gov) will present the Draft Land Use Framework for the General Plan Update. The Draft Framework shows how Oakland can add more housing and services near transit and jobs, improve parks and open space, make streets safer, and strengthen public transit. We're planning for a "City of Neighborhoods," where each neighborhood has vibrant, walkable areas with homes, local services, reliable transit, and welcoming community spaces close together. It also includes ideas like new greenways to connect neighborhoods and better access to the waterfront. Learn more and share feedback at <http://oaklandca.gov/landuse>.
- VII. Item 2: Guest Presentation: Core Leaders Committee, Oakland Youth Vote
Youth leaders from Oakland Youth Vote will come to present the findings from the recent Evaluation Report of the 1st Oakland Youth Vote and to practice sharing their proposal that will be brought to the School Board on 4/22.
