

Oakland Fund for Children and Youth (OFCY) invests in programs that uplift, empower, and protect children, youth and their families, ensuring access to critical resources, opportunities, and brighter futures for the next generation.

What We Fund

- Social-Emotional or Early Childhood
- Family Resource Centers and Parent Engagement
- Elementary Afterschool Programs
- Middle Afterschool Programs
- Middle School Engagement, Wellness & Transitions
- High School and Postsecondary Student Success
- Youth Leadership and Development
- Summer Academic, Enrichment, and Employment
- Violence Prevention
- Career Access and Employment for Opportunity Youth
- Career Access and Employment for Youth In School

KIDS First!

Scan here to learn more about funded programs!

For additional information

510-238-3088 www.OFCY.org

OFCY@oaklandca.gov